Subject: Obsolescence of fuse series

Littelfuse is obsoleting the fuses shown in the accompanying file. This file also provides information on any possible replacement series for the obsoleted fuses. We are available should you require assistance replacing the affected parts. We can provide samples, drawings, and application assistance upon request. Please contact your local Littelfuse Sales Office or visit our website at Littelfuse.com.

We are offering a Last-Time-Buy opportunity for these fuses. We will accept your Last-Time-Buy orders until July 30, 2004. We will not accept any orders after July 30, 2004. Normal leadtimes will apply for all Last-Time-Buy orders.

Please contact your local sales representative for further information on this matter.
